

Software update for the Audi Q4 e-tron to version 3.2

New functions for cars with software version 2.3

2022 model year

Functions in software version 3.2

2023 models produced from CW 35/2022

- » Expanded Audi connect portfolio
 - » Personal user profiles on board incl. recent destinations
 - » myAudi app sends routes to car
 - » Last-mile navigation and other app functions e.g. car status and parking position
 - » Online roadside assistance calls
- » Optimized DC charging power
- » Preferred charging time for setting a defined charging window
- » Battery protection for gentle charging and 80% SoC limit
- » Remote control charging and departure times (charging timer) in the car and in the app
- » Amazon Alexa* integration

- » Plug and Charge (PnC)
- » Online system updates (OTA updates ready)
- » Theme worlds in the MMI for individualization of the screen background

New functions for cars with software version 3.0/ 3.1

2022 models produced from CW 8/2022

* Amazon, Alexa, and all related logos are brands or registered trademarks of Amazon.com, Inc. or an associated company.

 The Plug & Charge function is already available at charging stations operated by IONITY and Aral Pulse. It will be available at other providers in the future. With this feature, you just need to plug in the charging cable after a one-time activation in the vehicle. The vehicle and charging point communicate through an encrypted connection. The charging process starts automatically, and billing is done via the payment method saved in the myAudi app – for instance, a credit card.